To "A":

Bill Bailey, Won't You Please Come Home?

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Hughie Cannon - 1902

Cannon was a "song-&-dance" man who was inspired by a lazy black fellow named "Bill Bailey" whose wife frequently threw him out of the house. A dubious alternate story involves a white Vaudevillian with the same name. Either way, the song was introduced by black-faced minstrel John Queen and was soon popular across America.

Most Verses by Wilson & Ringle - 1924

There's a change in your manner
and a change in your way
There was time once when you was O.K.
You once said you saved ev'ry kiss for my sake
Now you're giving all the girls an even break
I'm gonna send out invitations to the men I know
'Cause you're gettin' colder than an Eskimo
I must have my lovin' or I'll fade away
There'll be some changes made today
There'll be some changes made.

2.

For there's a change in your manner
There's a change in your style
And here of late you never wear a smile
You don't seem to act like a real lover should
You can't thrill your mamma if you're made of wood
I gotta have a man who loves me like a real live Sheik
With a tasty kiss that lingers for a week
I'm not over sixty so it's time to say
There'll be some changes made today
There'll be some changes made.

3.

For there's a change in your squeezin'
There's a change in your kiss
It used to have a kick that I now miss
You'd set me on fire when you used to tease
Now each time you call I just sit there and freeze
You had a way of making love that made a hit with me
One time you could thrill me but it's plain to see
You're not so ambitious as you used to be
There'll be some changes made today
There'll be some changes made.

4.

For there's a change in the fashions
Ask the feminine folks
Even Jack Benny has been changin' jokes
I must make some changes from old to the new
I must do things just the same as others do
I'm goin' to change my long tall Daddy
For a little short Fat
Goin' to change the number where I live at
I must have some lovin' or I'll fade away
There'll be some changes made today
There'll be some changes made.

5.

There's a change in the weather
There's a change in the sea
From now on there'll be a change in me
I'm tired of working all of my life
I'm gonna grab a rich husband and be his wife
I'm gonna ride around in a big limousine
Wear fancy clothes and put on plenty of steam
No more tired puppies, will I treat you mean
There'll be some changes made today
There'll be some changes made.

6.

For there's a change in your manner
There's a change in your smile
From now on you can't be worth my while
I'm right here to tell you with you I'm thru
Your brand of lovin' will never do
I'm gettin' tired of eating just butter and bread
I could enjoy a few pork chops instead
You know variety is the spice of life they say
There'll be some changes made today
There'll be some changes made.

Was it gone with the song that the or-ches-tra played? With a sigh, with a glance at the moon a-bove, Was it just by chance we spoke of love? MILNEBURG JOYS

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Milneburg was a popular resort area on Lake Ponchartrain thru the 'teens & 20's. Many New Orleans musicians played regularly there at Boudio's, Guarella's, etc. It ended when the WPA put in a seawall in the mid-30's. A printing error titled this tune "Milenburg" Joys.

Ferdinand "Jelly Roll" Morton, Leon Roppolo, Paul Mares - copyrighted 1925. Jelly often did not copyright his songs until many years after he composed them.

157 THE BASIN STREET BLUES

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Spencer Williams - 1928

There are several stories about the origin of this very popular Dixieland song. One documented version is that Williams had written only the chorus, but the day the first recording was to be made (with Goodman, Teagarden, etc. on the session) the arranger brought in a verse with lyrics which he had written. The young arranger was Glenn Miller.

Recorded by: Louis Armstrong 1928, Charleston Chasers (Red Nichols, etc.) 1931, Benny Goodman 1934, Bing Crosby & Connie Boswell 1937, Fats Waller 1937, Bunk Johnson 1944, etc.

There is a story that young Bix Beiderbecke was noodling on a piano one evening, in one of his hang-outs near the Indiana University campus. Bix spent many hours at various pianos. This particular evening his friend Hoagy Carmichael (4 years older than Bix) stopped and listened to Bix' catchy tune.

Hoagy is reputed to have said, "Man, if you'd slow that tempo down that would be a mighty pretty song". Bix shrugged off the suggestion and kept the bouncy rhythm going.

Supposedly, just maybe, a few years later part of that melody appeared in print for the first time, as part of "Stardust".

If there is even a slight possibility that this episode happened, it leaves most of us wondering what part of this classic song might have been created by Bix.

Other trivia: Hoagy recorded "Stardust" as early as October 31 (Halloween) 1927, at the famous Gennett studio in Richmond, Indiana. (Gennett #6311).

Buddy Bolden Blues

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Ferd "Jelly Roll" Morton

Charles "Buddy" Bolden is the legendary first jazz cornet player. He was a part-time barber, born in New Orleans in 1877. He was a tremendously powerful cornetist who could also play very sweetly. One source claimed that Buddy's horn could be heard 13 miles from Congo Square. Known as a "ladies' man", he led his band until 1907, when he was incapacitated by mental illness brought on by alcohol and/or syphilis. He died in 1931 still confined to an institution.

This song is also known as "Funky Butt", relating to the old New Orleans "Funky Butt" dance hall where Bolden's band often played. It was on Perdido St. between Library and Franklin. Earlier it had been the Union Sons Lodge Hall, but was "Kenna's" when Bolden played there. The odor in the place was so unbearable during dances that trombonist Willie Cornish came up with a name for it, calling it "Funky Butt". Soon everyone in the neighborhood knew the place as "Funky Butt Hall". In the 1930's the building was used as a church.

*These are the standard censored lyrics. Jelly Roll Morton, in his famous 1938 Library of Congress recordings, said the original lyrics were too obscene to be quoted.

* Franky Duson was an early New Orleans trombonist, shown in a few early photos. Like dozens of men just after 1900 he also worked as a pimp in Storyville, the legal area of prostitution in the Crescent City. When the government closed Storyville during World War I (1918) it put many jazz musicians out of work.

Concert Pitch

Published as if written by Joe Primrose in 1928. Actually based on old British song "The Unfortunate Rake" from the 18th century. Collected in early 1900's by John Lomax. There are dozens of verses added over the years.

Rec: Louis Armstrong 1929, Joe "King" Oliver 1930, Alex Hill (w/ Jabbo Smith, trmpt.) 1929, Jack Teagarden, Dukes of Dixieland, etc.

Verse:

A

When will I ev - er stop moan - in'? When will I ev - er smile?
My ba - by went and left me, She'll be gone a long, long while.
I feel so blue and heart - brok - en, What am I liv - ing for?
My ba - by went and left me, Nev - er to come back no more. I went down to the Saint James In - firm - 'ry, My ba - by there she lay, Laid

"What is my ba - by's chan - ces?" I asked old Doc - tor Sharp, go, let her go, God bless her, Where - ev - er she may be. She can out on a cold mar - ble ta - ble, Well, I looked and I turned a - way.
"Boy, by six o' - clock this eve - nin', she'll be play - in' her gold - en harp". Let her hunt this wide world o - ver, But she'll nev - er find a man like me.

1. I went down to St. James Infirmary.

All was still as night,
My gal was on the table,
Stretched out so pale, so white.
Tho' she treated me mean and lowdown,
Somehow I didn't care,
My soul is sick and weary,
I hope we meet again up there. (CHORUS:)

CHORUS: Let her go, let her go, God bless her,
Wherever she may be,
She can hunt this wide world over,
But she'll never find a man like me.

2. Sixteen coal-black horses,

Hitched to a rubber-tired hack,
Carried seven girls to the graveyard,
And brought only six of them back.
Now when I die, please bury me,
In my milk-white Stetson hat,
With a five-dollar gold piece on my watch chain,
So they'll know I died standin' pat. (CHORUS:)

3. Six poker dealers for pall bearers,

Let a whore sing my funeral song,
With a red hot band just beatin' it out,
Raisin' hell as we roll along.
Now I may drowned in the ocean,
May be killed by a cannonball,
But let me tell you buddy,
A woman was the cause of it all. (CHORUS:)

When the Saints Go Marching In

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Traditional spiritual song. The most requested of all "Dixieland" songs, usually requested by folks who don't know any other Dixieland songs! Some bands (like Turk Murphy's) wouldn't even play it! The sign in Preservation Hall reads: "Requests $1 - Saints $5". "Saints" is a perfectly good New Orleans song, it's just been over-worked.

The minor section of St. Louis Blues (section "B") is often played with a straight-8th-note Latin feel. Specifically, it is a Tango-like rhythm related to the older Tangano. This seems to be historically correct plus it adds variety to the performance.

Segue:

"Found A New Baby" has been a popular tune for Dixie bands for many years, but there is always debate about the bridge (letter "B").

This version shows the melody resting on "1" and beginning on the upbeat. Some musicians swear that this is correct. Others swear that the melody should begin on the downbeat with no rest. Still others swear that the first two notes of the bridge are pick-up notes played before the downbeat.

In other words, play it any way you like but swear while you're doing it!

Since the rhythms in the "Chorus" are altered to be more as this song is usually performed, I put the entire original lyrics here:

Verse #1: (Letter "A")

There's a boy that's in our band, And how he blows that horn,
 Finest since you're born, When he starts you're gone.
 They all call him "Hot Lips" for, He blows real red-hot notes, And ev'rybody on the floor just floats: (that's what they say:)

Chorus: (Letter "B")

He's got hot lips, when he plays Jazz, He draws out steps, Like no one has.
 You're on your toes, And shake your shoes, Boy how he goes, When he plays blues.

("C" is midway thru Chorus:)

I watch the crowd, Until he's through, He can be proud, They're "coo-ko" too.
 His music's
 rare--, You must--, declare, The boy is there, with two hot lips.

Verse #2: (Letter "A")

Heard him play the other night, And old man Oscar Clive,
 Who is eighty-five, Sure as you're alive,
 Got so frisky when he started out to do his stuff, Was told to sit right down for being rough: (and then he said:)

Verse - Begin Time:

Clarinet & Trombone play sustained pad behind cornet:

This version is similar to Louis Armstrong's classic 1928 rendition, which some people feel is one of the best recordings he ever made.

Louis' rhythmic patterns can be difficult to notate precisely, and once done, even more difficult to read & play! The story goes that someone once notated one of Louis' recorded solos exactly and asked him if he could play it from the sheet. In effect, Louis said "You gotta' be kidding!"

Listen to Louis' recording again. That's the ONLY way to come close to the original rendition.

The "Chorus" melody is shown here with lyrics in a very "straight" format. It should be played, however, in the hot style of Bix's 1927 recording. Cornetists should embellish the lead part in this manner.

B Chorus:

I nev - er knew my gal would do me that way.

I nev - er thought that she would leave me some day.

For now there's noth - ing I can do or can say, I'm all a - lone,

I might have known it.

I thought she loved me like a sweet ma - ma should.

She got am - bi - tious and she left me for good.

I'm just as lost as an - y babes in the wood, since my best gal turned me down.
