

8 Tailgate Ramble

THE FIREHOUSE JAZZ BAND

Music by Joseph "Wingy" Manone-1944.

Lyrics by Johnny Mercer.

Trumpeter Manone lost arm in street car accident when he was a child in New Orleans. Did radio shows with Bing Crosby. In movies "Rhythm On the River" and "Hi Ya, Sailor". Wrote "Tar Paper Stomp" which some say became Glenn Miller's "In the Mood".

This song rec: Manone, Sidney Bechet 1947,

Dukes of Dixieland c. 1959, Sharkey Bonano, etc.,

Concert Pitch

Intro:

When wa - gons

Verse:

meet on the street, the traf- fic stops; They have to call the cops, You ain't heard noth- in' pops! The band that's loud draws the crowd, and that ain't all; They tag along 'till they start the ball, down at the Ea- gle's Hall. When the wag-on