

LIVERY STABLE BLUES (Barnyard Blues)

The Firehouse Jazz Band

This song, recorded by the ODJB Feb. 26, 1917, along with "Dixieland Jass One Step" were on the first "Jazz" record ever offered to the public: Victor #18255 was a landmark, and could be had for 75 cents. Columbia had tried to record the ODJB the previous month, but the takes were not good enough to release.

This version similar to Muggsy Spanier's classic 1939 recording. See "95A" for original sheet & lyrics.
