

Someday Sweetheart

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Copyright 1919 by Spikes Brothers & Carter.
Recorded by: Jelly Roll Morton Jazz Band 1923,
Gene Austin 1927, King Oliver 1927,
The Charleston Chasers (Red Nichols) 1927,
Bucktown 5 (Muggsy Spanier) 1924,
Eddie Lang-Joe Venuti All-Star Band (Teagarden, Goodman, etc.) 1931, Artie Shaw 1937,
Henry Allen-Coleman Hawkins 1933, Mildred Bailey
1935, Eddie Condon & His Chicagoans 1939,
Muggsy Spanier's Ragtime Band 1939,
Bob Thiele (with Bobby Hackett & Urbie Green)

Concert Pitch

Verse:

A F D^{b7} F

You told me that you loved me true, and I be- lieved in you. You broke your vow and now some-how it seems I'm al- ways blue. But there'll come a day

Gm D⁷ Gm Gm⁷

C⁷ F⁶ F

When you're far a- way. You'll sit a- lone

Am E⁷ Am G⁷ C⁷

and cry for me you'll sigh and the days that have gone by. Some- day Sweet-