

Dixie Jamboree

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Joe Davis - 1929
 Davis owned Triangle Music publishers, with Jimmy Durante as one of his writers.
 Lyrics by Howard Johnson who also wrote
 "M-O-T-H-E-R", and "I Scream, You Scream,
 We All Scream For Ice Cream".

Concert Pitch

Verse:

Way down South there in the land of cot-ton,
 Par-son Jones and Dea-con Ras-tus Jen-kins,
 They have some times, won-der-ful times,
 Good col-ored men, al-ways at-tend
 Known as Dix-ie Jam-bo-rees.
 when they hold those Jam-bo-rees,
 Such in good the fun-one sel-dom sees.
 in the o-pen 'neath the trees.
A Dark-ies liv-ing in the land of cot-ton,
 Mam-my Sue, and good old Aunt Je-mi-ma,
 Gath-er a-round, from ev-'ry town,
 Bows in their hair, You'll find them there,
 What a pic-nic then, right from start to end,
 Pick-a-nies too, of most ev-'ry hue,
 Boy, they do it up brown:
 Jump a-round, ev-'ry where: