Back to "A" for Solos & Out Chorus:

The "Sunset Cafe" was a club owned by Al Capone on Chicago's rough South side. Louis played there in the 1920's while it was managed by Joe Glaser. In 1935 Glaser became Armstrong's life-long personal manager. Glaser steered Louis into performing more popular music and less pure jazz material. As Glaser liked to say, "I made millionaires of both of us".
