

She Looks Like Helen Brown

The Firehouse Jazz Band

Billy Rose & Fred Fisher - 1936

Rec: Pete Daily's Dixieland Band

(voc: Joe "Country" Washburne), etc.

[Washburne wrote "Oh, Monah" 1931,

"One Dozen Roses" 1942, etc.]

Concert Pitch

F D7 Gm7 C7 F° F Dm7 Gm C7

Hel - en Brown, she left our town, Changed her name to look for fame up - on the screen. I think I've seen the girl that I mean. Oh, she looks like Hel-en Brown, She's the best-dressed gal in town.

F D7 Gm C7 F7

A Bb Bb° F7

F7 F° F7 Bb F+ Bb

Got the skin you love to touch, Nev - er lets you touch it much. Oh, she won a beaut-y crown, In her new A - lice Blue gown. They

Bb Bb° F7 F7 Gm Ab° F/A

F7 F° F7 F7 Bb C7

said that she looked heav-en - ly, But she looked like Hel-en Brown.

B F Gm7 C7 F

Strike me pink if I don't think, That she's the Dar - bo.

C7 F F7

Swell - er than Gar - bo and Har - low thrown in. All the

Bb Bb° F7 F Gm Ab° F/A

fel - lows look a - roun', Ev - ry time she goes to town. She knocks 'em dead all dressed in red, But she looks like Hel-en Brown.

F7 F° F7 Bb